Brief Report from the Board of Examiners

- Next Board of Examiners Meeting is January 22. Details on our web site calendar.
- License renewal season over-stressed our infrastructure and response times were too long. We are adapting our processes and upgrading our infrastructure to prevent this from happening again.
- We are undertaking a review and revamp of our statutes and rules in a modernization effort.
- The board is very active in pursuing various and multiple disciplinary issues and investigations.
- The transition to a virtual office is complete and has been very effective.
- We continue to streamline and align the CCA and XT programs.
- Exam dates for 2021 for CCA and XT exams are published on our Board Calendar of Events.
- Information regarding Chiropractic Physician status in the COVID vaccine program has been published by email to all licentiates.
- Jurisprudence class for DCs will be held 1/26/21 followed by the exam.

Serving,

Dr. Joe Siragusa
